(Optional) Tips & Suggestions for Teachers
- Advanced topic - applying rules for heavy and thin sound of the laam in the name of Allah Ta'alah is an advanced topic, but this rule applies to simple reading as well, and not just for recitation, so good to try to learn when the heavy sound applies.
(Optional) Ideas that may be offered to mothers to make it easier/fun to teach kids
- This applies to simple reading but is advanced rule, and may be difficult for younger kids. - If teaching, can explain the laam with "crown" تاج on it in Allah Ta'alah's name is special; - Can underline the words الله and اللهم with pencil as kids may not initially recognize (Heavy laam is also applied when saying call to prayer (azan))
